KBC Insurance to raise interest rate on guaranteed-interest life insurance product, KBC¹ Life Experience 3Y and 8Y, on 3 February.

KBC Insurance is set to raise the interest rate on KBC Life Experience on 3 February 2025:

Term	Int. rate as from 03/02	Current interest rate
3 years	2.00%	1.80%
8 years	2.50%	2.20%

KBC Insurance (still) does not charge any management fees for KBC Life Experience, regardless of its term.

KBC Life Experience is aimed at customers who can do without their money for eight years, even if they initially opt for a shorter term. They can choose from a number of different terms (1, 3, 5 or 8 years) and no limit applies to how much they can reinvest within the same contract. What's more, the insurance tax of 2% has to be paid just once. Once class-21 reserves have been held for eight years, no withholding tax is payable when a withdrawal is made.

KBC Life Experience follows KBC's responsible investing policy and has been awarded the Towards Sustainability label.

Risks

You are exposed to the risk that the insurer might be unable to fulfil its obligations with respect to the product. You could lose all of the capital you invested. KBC Life Experience is covered by the Belgian deposit-protection scheme for guaranteed-interest life insurance. The scheme is triggered if it is established that KBC Insurance has defaulted. The protection currently amounts to 100 000 euros per policyholder for all reserves that are held with KBC Insurance under protected guaranteed-interest life insurance contracts. The assets that the insurance company sets aside in order to be in a position to honour the obligations directly arising from guaranteed-interest life insurance (class 21) products and capitalisation transactions (class 26) constitute separate funds in the insurance company's books. Should the insurer go bankrupt, these special funds are – as a matter of priority – reserved so that the commitments towards the policyholders and/or the beneficiaries can be fulfilled.
