In addition, the company may function as an intellectual property company responsible for, among other things, the development, acquisition, management, protection and maintenance of intellectual property rights, as well as for making these rights available and/or granting rights of use in respect of these rights to the beneficiaries referred to in paragraph two.

The company may also perform all commercial, financial and industrial transactions that may be useful or expedient for achieving the object of the company and that are directly or indirectly related to this object. The company may also by means of subscription, contribution, participation or in any other form whatsoever participate in all companies, businesses or institutions that have a similar, related or complementary activity.

In general, the company may, both in Belgium and abroad, perform all acts which may contribute to the achievement of its object.

Art. 3 – The registered office is established at Havenlaan 2, 1080 Brussels. It may be transferred to another location in Belgium by resolution of the Board of Directors, which is authorised to have the resulting amendment to the Articles of Association recorded by deed of notary-public.

The company may set up administrative and operating headquarters, branches, offices and auxiliary offices in Belgium and abroad.

Art. 4 – The life of the company is indefinite.

It may be dissolved only under the conditions laid down by law for amendment of the Articles of Association.

TITLE II – SHARE CAPITAL, CONTRIBUTION, SHARES AND OTHER SECURITIES

Art. 5 – The issued share capital amounts to one billion four hundred and fifty-six million nine hundred and eighty thousand five hundred forty-eight euros and twenty-six cents (1 456 980 548.26 euros), divided into four hundred and sixteen million, one hundred fifty-five thousand, six hundred and seventy-six (416 155 676) shares of no nominal value.

The share capital is fully paid up.

Insofar as the law allows, the shares shall be in registered or book-entry form. At the request and expense of the shareholder, shares may be converted from one form into another in accordance with the legal requirements.

The shareholder register can be kept in electronic form.

Art. 6 – The decision to increase the share capital shall be taken by the General Meeting of Shareholders according to the procedure required for amendment of the Articles of Association.

On each capital increase carried out by means of a contribution in cash, the new shares must be offered first to the existing shareholders in proportion to the amount of capital that their shares represent at the time of issue.

In derogation from the foregoing paragraph, the General Meeting of Shareholders, deliberating under the conditions of attendance and majority prescribed by law for amendment of the Articles of Association, may decide that all new shares, or a portion thereof, will not be offered first to the existing shareholders. In that case, the General Meeting of Shareholders will itself establish the conditions and in particular the price of the issue without preferential subscription rights. If the preferential subscription rights are suspended or restricted, a right of precedence may be granted to existing shareholders on allotment of the new shares.

The General Meeting of Shareholders may also decide to issue convertible bonds or subscription rights, whether or not linked to subordinated or unsubordinated bonds. On such issue, the General Manager may suspend or restrict the preferential subscription rights of existing shareholders. If the preferential subscription rights are suspended or restricted, a right of precedence may be granted to existing shareholders on allotment of the bonds or subscription rights.

Art. 7 – The Board of Directors is authorised to increase the share capital in one or more steps under the terms and conditions to be determined by the Board and in accordance with the at the time of the capital increase prevailing statutory provisions.

Furthermore, the Board of Directors is authorised to decide in one or more steps on the issue of convertible bonds, subordinated or otherwise, or subscription rights, linked or otherwise to subordinated or unsubordinated bonds and which may lead to increases of capital.

This authorisation is granted for an amount of:

1°) two hundred and ninety-one million euros (291 000 000 euros). Upon deciding within the framework of this part of the authorisation on a capital increase or on an issue of the aforementioned convertible bonds or subscription rights to which in principle the preferential subscription rights of the existing shareholders apply, the Board of Directors is authorised, up to a maximum amount of two hundred and ninety-one million euros (291 000 000 euros) and in the company's interest, to restrict or suspend the preferential subscription rights of existing shareholders. The Board may also do so to the benefit of one or more specific persons, as far as this is not prohibited by law. If the preferential subscription rights are suspended or restricted, the Board of Directors may grant a right of precedence to the existing shareholders on allotment of the new shares, convertible bonds or subscription rights.

2°) four hundred and nine million euros (409 000 000 euros). Upon deciding on a capital increase or on an issue of the aforementioned convertible bonds or subscription rights within the framework of this part of the authorisation, the Board of Directors is not authorised to restrict or suspend the preferential subscription rights of existing shareholders.

The increases of capital decided upon under this authorisation may be carried out by both contribution in cash or in kind and by the incorporation of reserves, including the share premium account unavailable for distribution. The reserves may be incorporated with or without new shares being issued.

In addition, the Board of Directors is authorised to determine the dividend entitlement of the shares that will be issued following capital increases and of the shares that will be issued following the conversion of the bonds or exercise of the subscription rights carried out under this authorisation.

The Board of Directors may exercise this authorisation during the five years following publication of the amendment to the Articles of Association decided upon by the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders of 4 October 2018. This authorisation can be extended in accordance with the at the time of the renewal prevailing statutory provisions.

Transitional provision

On the twenty-first of December two thousand and eighteen, the issued share capital was increased by nine hundred and five thousand nine hundred and sixty-two euros and fifty-nine cents (€ 905 962.59) as a result of the adoption of the realisation of the capital increase with the suspension of the preferential subscription rights decided by the Board of Directors on the fourteenth of November two thousand and eighteen. After this capital increase, the authorisation for the authorized capital can still be used for a remaining amount of six hundred and ninety-nine million ninety-four thousand and thirty-seven euros and forty-one cents (€ 699 094 037.41), of which a maximum of two hundred and ninety-nine million ninety-four thousand and thirty-seven euros and forty-one cents (€ 290 094 037.41), with the possibility of suspension of the preferential subscription rights of the existing shareholders pursuant to Article 7, third paragraph, 1° of the articles of association.

Art 8 – When exercising the authority conferred upon it under Article 7 to increase capital, the Board of Directors is empowered, with the possibility of substitution, to amend the Articles of Association in order to change the amounts of the issued share capital, as well as the number of shares upon the new issue of such, and to state in a transitional provision under Article 7 to what extent it has used its authority to increase capital.

When exercising the authority conferred upon it under Article 7 to issue convertible bonds or subscription rights, the Board of Directors is empowered, with possibility of substitution, to state in a transitional provision under Article 7 to what extent the issues decided upon may lead to the increase of capital and the issue of shares; likewise, the Board is authorised, as the bonds are converted or the subscription rights exercised, to amend in the Articles of Association the amounts of issued share capital, as well as the number of shares.

In the event a share premium is paid on a capital increase decided upon by the Board of Directors or the General Meeting of Shareholders, or on the conversion of bonds or the exercise of subscription rights, or if an issue price is posted to the accounts as a share premium on the issue of subscription rights decided upon by the Board of Directors or the General Meeting of Shareholders, this will be earmarked for appropriation to the share premium account, which will, to the same extent as the share capital, serve as security for third parties, and which, except in the event of the incorporation of this share premium in capital, may be exercised only pursuant to a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders deliberating under the quorum and majority conditions prescribed for the reduction of share capital.

Upon the issue of shares, bonds, profit-sharing certificates or subscription rights decided upon by the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors, this last may at all times enter into agreements with third parties according to such stipulations, terms and conditions as it deems fit, in order to ensure the placement of the securities to be issued.

Art. 9 – The Board of Directors may split the shares into sub-shares and may deliver securities representing several shares or sub-shares.

Art. 10 – The company recognises only one owner per share or sub-share for the exercise of voting rights at the General Meeting of Shareholders and of all rights attaching to the shares pursuant to Articles 25 and 26 of these Articles of Association or otherwise.

Co-owners, usufructuaries and bare owners, pledgees and pledgers, in short, all persons who, for one reason or another, have joint entitlement to a share, shall arrange to be represented respectively by one and the same person.
This representative must either be one of the persons co-entitled or must meet the requirements of Article 28 of the Articles of Association.

Until such time as this provision has been met, the company shall be entitled to suspend the exercise of the rights attaching to these shares. The chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be empowered to exercise this right of suspension.

Art. 10bis – For the purposes of the statutory disclosure requirements for major holdings, the company has determined, in addition to the statutory thresholds, a threshold of three per cent (3%).

Art. 11 – Under the conditions laid down by law, the company and its direct and indirect subsidiaries may acquire and dispose of the shares of the company.

Art. 11bis To the extent permitted by law, bonds shall be in bearer, registered or book-entry form, and subscription rights shall be in registered or book-entry form. At the request and expense of the holder, bonds and subscription rights may be converted from one form into another in accordance with the legal requirements, unless the issue conditions for the security in question stipulate otherwise.

The registers of registered bonds and subscription rights may be kept in electronic form.

TITLE III – MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL

Art. 12 – The company shall be administered by a Board of Directors and an Executive Committee, in accordance with the applicable legislation.

The Board of Directors shall comprise at least seven directors appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders, on condition that at least three members of the Board have the capacity of independent director in accordance with the Code on Companies and Associations. The office of director may be revoked at any time.

The term of office of directors amounts to six years at the most and expires after the annual Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

Outgoing directors shall always be eligible for re-election.

Art. 13 – If a directorship falls vacant as a result of decease or removal or any other reason, the remaining directors may provisionally arrange for a replacement.

In that case, the next General Meeting of Shareholders will make a definitive appointment.

A director appointed to replace a director whose term of office had not yet come to an end will complete this term of office, unless the General Meeting of Shareholders opts for a different term of office when making the definitive appointment.

Art. 14 – The Board of Directors elects from among its members a chairman and possibly one or more deputy chairmen and other officers. The Board of Directors shall appoint its secretary, who need not be a director.

Art. 15 – Unless the Board of Directors should make other arrangements, it shall function as follows.

The Board of Directors shall meet whenever the company's interest so requires, upon convocation by the chairman, the deputy chairmen or two directors; the convening notices shall indicate the date, time, place and agenda.

Any director who is unable to attend may, by letter or any other means of communication providing documentary confirmation of the nomination as proxy, empower another member of the Board to represent him/her and to vote in his/her stead.

The meeting shall be presided over by the chairman or, in his absence, by a deputy chairman or a director designated by his/her colleagues.

For the rest, the Board of Directors may make all arrangements for the effective functioning of the Board of Directors, the committees of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee.

- Art. 16 – Except in the case of force majeure, war, civil disturbance and natural disasters, the Board of Directors can deliberate validly only if at least half its members are present or represented. Directors who, in accordance with the law, may not participate in the deliberations and the vote are not included to determine whether the quorum has been reached.

Resolutions shall be adopted by a simple majority of votes.

In case of a tied vote, the chairman of the meeting shall have the casting vote.

The resolutions of the Board of Directors may also be passed by unanimous written agreement of the directors.

- Art. 17 – The decisions of the Board of Directors shall be recorded in reports.

Each report shall be signed by the acting chairman and shall likewise be submitted for signature to the other members of the Board of Directors.

If the reports are recorded on loose leaves, the latter shall be numbered per meeting.

Copies of and extracts from the reports shall be validly signed by the chairman, by two directors, by the secretary to the Board of Directors, by the secretary to the Executive Committee or by the Group Secretary.

- Art. 18 – The Board of Directors is empowered to determine the company's general policy and strategy and to perform all acts which, by law, are reserved specifically for it. The Board of Directors is responsible for supervising the Executive Committee.

Within the limits of its authority, the Board of Directors may confer special powers on agents of its choice.

- Art. 19 – The General Meeting of Shareholders may grant the directors a fixed remuneration and attendance fees, chargeable to overhead expenses.

The Board of Directors may grant directors who perform special functions or missions emoluments chargeable to overhead expenses.

Art. 20 – The Executive Committee is empowered to perform all acts that are necessary or useful in achieving the company's object, apart from those powers invested in the Board of Directors pursuant to Article 18.

The Executive Committee shall comprise a maximum of ten members appointed by the Board of Directors. Together, these members form a collegiate body. Members of the Executive Committee who, pursuant to the law, may not participate in the deliberations and the vote, will not be counted when determining whether the relevant quorum exists.

The resolutions of the Executive Committee may be passed by unanimous written agreement of its members.

The president of the Executive Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors on the proposal of the Executive Committee.

The Board of Directors shall determine the remuneration of the members of the Executive Committee, after obtaining the advice of the president of the Executive Committee.

The age limit for members of the Executive Committee shall be set by the Board of Directors, which shall also determine the system of retirement and survival pensions for the members of the Executive Committee.

Within the limits of its authority, the Executive Committee may confer special powers on agents of its choice.

Copies of and extracts from the resolutions of the Executive Committee shall be validly signed by the president of the Executive Committee, by two members of the Executive Committee, by the secretary to the Executive Committee or by the Group Secretary.

Art. 21 – The company shall be represented by either two members of the Executive Committee, or one member of the Executive Committee acting together with either a senior general manager, the secretary to the Board of Directors, the secretary to the Executive Committee or the Group Secretary.

With regard to the powers of the Board of Directors and without prejudice to the previous paragraph, the company may also be represented by two directors, one of whom is required to be a member of the Executive Committee.

Lastly, the company may be represented by persons especially empowered for that purpose.

Art. 22 – Supervision of the company's financial situation and annual accounts shall be exercised by one or more statutory auditors who are appointed and remunerated in accordance with statutory provisions.

The General Meeting of Shareholders may appoint a deputy statutory auditor.

The statutory auditors shall be appointed for a renewable term of three years.

The term of office of the outgoing statutory auditors ceases immediately after the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

When several auditors are appointed, they shall be validly represented at any time by one of their number.

TITLE IV – GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Art. 23 – The General Meeting of Shareholders represents all shareholders.

Its decisions shall also be binding on the shareholders who abstain or vote against.

Each share gives entitlement to one vote. If the shares are split into sub-shares, the sub-shares, combined in sufficient number, shall give the same entitlement as the share, unless otherwise stipulated by law.

Holders of convertible bonds, subscription rights or certificates issued in co-operation with the company, shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders, but have only advisory voting capacity.

Transitional provision

The last paragraph of Article 23 shall also apply to holders of ordinary bonds which are not convertible into shares and which have been issued before the taking into effect of the amendment to the Articles of Association decided upon by the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders of 2 May two thousand and nineteen, to the extent that this right is explicitly granted to them in the issue conditions of the securities concerned. In this case Articles 27, 28, 29 and 34 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Art. 24 – A General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held annually at the registered office of the company or at any other place indicated in the convening notice, at 10 a.m. on the first Thursday of May, or, if this day is a statutory public holiday or bank holiday, at 10 a.m. on the business day immediately preceding it.

The Ordinary General Meetings of Shareholders shall be convened by the Board of Directors.

Art. 25 – The Board of Directors or the statutory auditors may convene Special and Extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders. They must do so at the request of one or more shareholders who represent at least one-tenth of the share capital, and this within three weeks of the date postmarked on the registered letter sent to the Board of Directors, listing and substantiating the case for the proposed agenda items and draft resolutions.

When the terms and conditions of Article 234, 235 or 236 of the Banking Act of 25 April 2014 are met with regard to taking recovery measures, and a capital increase is necessary to avoid a resolution procedure being initiated under the relevant conditions set out in Article 454 of the aforementioned Act, 10 to 15 days' notice must be given prior to the General Meeting of Shareholders on taking a decision on that capital increase. In that case, shareholders are not entitled to put other items on the agenda of that General Meeting of Shareholders and the agenda may not be revised.

Art. 26 – Shareholders who exercise their statutory right to put items on the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders, must include in their request the text of the items to be included and the accompanying draft resolutions. Shareholders who exercise their statutory right to table draft resolutions regarding items included on the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders, must include in their request the text of the draft resolutions.

Art. 27 – The right of a shareholder to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders and to exercise his/her voting rights at said meeting shall be granted solely on the basis of the accounting record of the shares in the name of the shareholder on the record date, more specifically at midnight Belgian time on the fourteenth day before the General Meeting of Shareholders, either by entry of the shares in the shareholder register, by their entry on the accounts of a recognised account holder or clearing house, and this regardless of the number of shares that the shareholder possesses on the day of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The right of a holder of convertible bonds, subscription rights or certificates issued in co-operation with the company to be present at the General Meeting of Shareholders, is similarly granted solely on the basis of the accounting record of the securities in his/her name on the record date. Bearer convertible bonds which are only issued abroad or which are subject to foreign law are registered for accounting purposes by presenting the convertible bonds to a financial intermediary or by entering them on an account at a financial intermediary.

Every shareholder and every holder of convertible bonds, subscription rights or certificates issued in co-operation with the company, who wishes to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders, must inform the company or a person so designated by the company by no later than the sixth day before the day of the General Meeting of Shareholders of his/her intention to attend and also indicate the number of securities with which he/she wishes to participate. If a holder of book-entry securities wishes to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders, he/she must also ensure that the company or a person so designated by the company, receives on the same day at the latest, a certificate supplied by the recognised account holder or the clearing house, which states the number of book-entry securities – entered in the holder's name on his/her accounts on the record date – with which he/she wishes to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders. One and the same obligation applies to every holder of bearer convertible bonds that are only issued abroad or that are subject to foreign law, on the understanding that in this case the certificate will be supplied by the financial intermediary to which the convertible bonds had been submitted, or with which the convertible bonds had been entered on an account.

Art. 28 – Unless specified otherwise by law, every shareholder, every holder of convertible bonds, subscription rights and certificates issued in co-operation with the company whether a private individual or legal entity, may arrange to be represented at the General Meeting of Shareholders by a single proxy.

The Board of Directors will determine the form to be used when voting by proxy. The company must be in receipt of the proxy on the sixth day before the General Meeting of Shareholders at the latest.

Art. 29 – The Board of Directors or the officers of the General Meeting of Shareholders may, within the confines of the law, grant exemption from the formalities laid down in Articles 27 and 28, paragraph 2, of these Articles of Association.

Art. 30 – Prior to the opening of the meeting, the persons present shall sign the attendance roster, on which are listed the names of the shareholders present or represented, as well as the number of securities they hold.

Art. 31 – The chairman of the Board of Directors or, in his absence, a deputy chairman or a director designated by his colleagues, shall preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The chairman shall appoint a secretary, who need not be chosen from among the shareholders; the meeting shall elect two tellers.

The chairman, the secretary and the tellers are the officers of the meeting.

Art. 32 – Except for resolutions for which the law requires a stricter attendance and/or voting quorum, the General Meeting of Shareholders may pass resolutions by a simple majority of votes, regardless of the number of shares participating in the voting.

Voting shall occur by a show of hands or in any other way accepted by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

A secret ballot shall be held at the request of one or more persons present and provided that this request is endorsed by one-third of the votes.

If, in the vote on an appointment, no candidate obtains the majority, a second vote shall be held between the two candidates who received the most votes; in the case of a tied vote, the elder of the two candidates shall be elected.

Art. 33 – Subject to observance of the legal requirements in respect of attendance and majority, the General Meeting of Shareholders may amend the Articles of Association.

Art. 34 – The Board of Directors is entitled, prior to any Ordinary, Special or Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, to postpone or cancel the meeting. This is in addition to the legal right for the Board of Directors to postpone any Ordinary, Special or Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders for up to five weeks due to an announcement regarding a significant participation, and during the meeting to postpone for five weeks the decision regarding the approval of the financial statements.

The adjournment of the decision regarding the approval of the financial statements, puts an end to the deliberation and renders invalid the resolutions passed with regard to the financial statements, including the resolutions on the discharge of the Directors and the statutory auditor. However, it does neither affect the deliberation nor the decisions in respect of resolutions having nothing to do with the financial statements.

All holders of shares, convertible bonds, subscription rights and certificates issued in cooperation with the company shall be called to attend the next meeting and admitted, provided that they have completed the formalities laid down in the Articles of Association, and this regardless of whether or not they attended the first meeting either in person or by proxy.

At the second meeting, the agenda of the initial meeting shall be dealt with in its entirety.

Art. 35 – The minutes of the General Meetings of Shareholders shall be signed by the officers of the meeting. Copies and extracts shall be validly signed by two directors, one of whom is required to be a member of the Executive Committee.

TITLE V – INVENTORY, FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, PROFIT APPROPRIATION, RESERVES

Art. 36 – The financial year begins on the first of January and ends on the thirty-first of December each year.

On the thirty-first of December of each year, an inventory shall be compiled, the financial statements drawn up and the books balanced. The financial statements shall comprise the balance sheet, the income statement and the notes to the same.

The Board of Directors shall make an estimate of all movable and immovable assets, rights or liabilities that appear in the financial statements or inventories. It may constitute provisions for tax and determine the amounts deemed necessary for impairment, depreciation or amortisation. In this regard, it shall bear in mind the interest of the company and endeavour to safeguard its future.

The directors shall draw up a report each year accounting for their management.

Art. 37 – The net profit shall be appropriated as follows:

1. At least five (5) per cent shall be set aside for the legal reserve, until such time as the latter amounts to one-tenth of the share capital.
2. An amount shall then be deducted which is required:
  - a) to pay a share of the profits to employees and other members of staff of the company and affiliated companies under (group) profit-sharing plans or any other form of employee participation;
  - b) to pay the shareholders a dividend that is set by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. The balance may be earmarked for appropriation to reserves or carried forward to the next financial year.

Art. 38 – The Board of Directors is authorised, in accordance with statutory provisions, to pay an interim dividend.

TITLE VI – WINDING UP, LIQUIDATION

Art. 39 – In case of liquidation of the company, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall appoint one or more liquidators, determine their powers and emoluments and establish the method of liquidation. The Board of Directors shall, without prejudice to the statutory requirements for liquidators, ipso jure be entrusted with the liquidation until such time as the liquidators are appointed.

Art. 40 – The net proceeds of the liquidation, after settlement of all corporate debts, shall be distributed among all the shares.

TITLE VII – MISCELLANEOUS

Art. 41 – The shareholders, members of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee, statutory auditors and liquidators who are domiciled abroad shall be obliged to elect domicile in Belgium for the purpose of all dealings with the company. In case of failure to meet this obligation, they shall ipso jure be deemed to have elected domicile at the registered office of the company, where all notifications, summonses and writs may legally be served upon them, and all notices or letters may be sent to them.
