"We are particularly pleased to receive this prestigious award, which we have now won for the third year in a row. The importance of the company website cannot be overstated, as it is the prime information source for the public at large. In a fast moving world, we cannot afford to sit on our laurels though. We are continually improving our site, both content-wise and from a technology point-of-view, in order to provide all our stakeholders with focused, clear and up-to-date information on our company." Wim Allegaert
General Manager Finance in KBC Group.
